In Memoriam

EARL E. DOWNING

County Superintendent of Schools 1943 - 1956

It's Up To You.

You are the fellow who has to decide
Whether you'll do it or toss it aside.
You are the fellow who makes up your mind
Whether you'll lead or linger behind --
Whether you'll try for the goal that's afar
Or be contented to stay where you are.
Take it or leave it, there's something to do;
Just think it over, it's all up to you.

Class History

The month was August and the year was 1953, when 53 shy freshmen cautiously entered the halls of Elmwood High for the first time. Under the direction of Mr. Cady, our advisor, our first class meeting was held in September. We elected the following officers: Douglas Coulter, President; Ronald Coon, Vice-President; Linda Parker, Secretary and Treasurer; Richard Coon, Reporter. During the year we had a skating party and Hayrack Ride.

The fall of "54" brought us back as sophomores. This year class officers were: Co-Presidents, Karen Kleen and Richard Coon; Secretary and Treasurer, Judy Purcell; Reporter, Carol Smith. Mr. Hamman was our advisor. We had an all-school party on November 10. Refreshments were served and everyone had a good time.

In January about 30 sophomores held a party which ended in a sleigh ride. Hot chocolate and cookies were served.

The Biology Class held a bake sale to raise money for an Armadillo. It died. The Biology Class also took a trip to Chicago on May 7, 1955. Mr. Cady chaperoned our trip.

On September 6, we enrolled as juniors with Mrs. Monroe as our advisor. We held a class meeting in late September and elected the following officers: Ronald Coon, President; Judy Purcell, Vice-President; Carol Greene, Secretary and Treasurer; Sharon Ekena, Reporter.

"Girl Crazy," our Junior Play, was given November 15. It was a big success.

When we got back from Thanksgiving vacation, we received our class rings.

We had a bake sale April 7, 1956, to raise more money for the Prom, which was held May 4. The theme was "Sealand Fantasy."

September 7 the Senior Class held their first meeting. Our officers for the year were: President, Ronald Coon; Vice-President, Virginia Ekena; Secretary, Judy Purcell; Treasurer, Janet Harlan; Reporter, Joyce Webber. Our advisors were: Mrs. Hart and Mr. Garrison.

September 26, we initiated the freshmen. Our Senior Steak Fry was held at Bradley Park in Peoria on October 4. October 18, we had our Chili Supper and Stunt Show. October 19 was the Homecoming Game and Dance. Everyone enjoyed themselves.

Our bake sale on December 1 was a huge success.

December 21, the seniors sponsored a Christmas Dance. The theme was "Christmas Fantasy." The public was invited and everyone had a nice time.

We sponsored a sock hop and coke party February 18, in honor of the class that bought the most yearbooks. The faculty were our guests. Everyone had a good time.

February 25 of "57", we chose our motto "Today's Learner is Tomorrow's Leader."

We had our Senior Play, "Midnight," March 22. It was a big hit.

On May 10, we were guests at the Junior-Senior Prom, "Midnight in Madrid."

Baccalaureate was held May 19, in the gymnasium with the Congregational Church in charge of the services, the following Wednesday was Class Day, May 22.

On May 23, commencement came, and we seniors were now ready to go forth and make use of the knowledge we have gained here during the last four years.

Prophecy

In the prophecy this afternoon we would like to go behind the scenes with an E. C. H. S. teacher. Our principal subject for this afternoon is a well-known figure around the halls of Elmwood High School. Our subject is unaware of her part in the prophecy. It is the pleasure of the class of 1957 to ask our principal subject to join us now. This is Your Life, Mrs. John Hart.

You were born on December 23 as Martha Isabel Kutz in Hoopeston, Illinois, and received your grade and high school education there. While snooping in your past, we found that you were quite active in high school, and we found the following information under your picture in the yearbook. You were quite active in chorus, and served as literary editor of the yearbook. You appeared in the following productions--Bells of Beauvois and The Florist Shop. The saying under your picture in the yearbook was quite fitting. It was "Let thy speech be better than silence, or be silent." Also in the yearbook we found a little joke between you and the teachers--it went something like this:

Miss Dale: Isabel, where did you get that chewing gum?

Isabel: Do you want the truth?

Miss Dale: Surely.

Isabel: Under your desk.

You attended MacMurray College, but transferred to the University of Illinois and were graduated from that college. You began your teaching career at Cerro Gordo and then moved to Elmwood. You taught in Elmwood until you were married on June 10, 1939, to John Hart. That ended your teaching career for the following year as married teachers were not allowed to teach. For several years you lived in a small house belonging to Smith's and lived there until last year when you moved to a new one on the farm. You didn't stay away from it long though as the following year you were at it again, this time at Paradise Chapel. During your year's stay there, your lunch consisted of mustard on bread and your coffee, the making of which has been changed to tea. This year proved to be one of your most enjoyable. Next you taught in the sixth grade at Elmwood. About this time you acquired Sarge and began one of the greatest friendships between dog and woman. The following year you again began teaching at Elmwood High where you have remained for the past seventeen years. There you became the assistant principal until you moved into the new building. One of your favorite hobbies is the preparation and eating of food. We all know what a happy hostess you are and how people enjoy coming to your home. Your favorite flower is yellow roses and your favorite color is brown. Your favorite TV programs are George Burns and Gracie Allen and Father Knows Best. You are quite famous for your puns. The seniors of this year will long remember how you worried about getting your potatoes planted during the full moon when it was raining all the time. Another memory is how you were going to plant your sweet peas when it was snowing. We will never forget the Senior Steak Fry and our smoky fire, the tears we shed, and the food we ate in the dark. There was also the bake sale we sponsored and the rolls you made. After being with this graduating class for four years, your favorite expression has become, "My hair is gray, but not with years."

We have recalled incidents in your past life now we are going to give you an insight into the future lives of the class members of 1957.

This is Ronald Coen, our former class president, carrying a blanket because he's ambassador to China. The other four brilliant looking men with him are Doug Coalter, Richard Coen, Tom Kilpatrick, and Stu Lewis, the world famous engineers of the Kiddle Erector Sets.

Coming out in this next group we see Janet Harlan who now drives DeSotos on the Groucho Marx Show. With her we see Jerry Blankenship, President of the Safe Driving Organization, where Sonny Patterson has just been awarded the pin for ten years of safe driving. Following along about this same line is Ed Cosby who races in the Indianapolis Speedway, where he's safe from police tickets, police cars and policemen.

Following the line of entertainment are Vernon Broadfield an honorary Mouseketeer Cheer-leader on Station C A T in Dogpatch. Then there is Larry McCoy, M. C. for the Rock'n Roll Party, Jerry Eccles a ballet dancer at Kepler's Hall in Hanna City, and Floyd Dunham and Catherine McIntyre understudies for George Burns and Gracie Allen.

Next we see Mary Ann Vance dean of girls at Amy Vanderbilt's finishing school for young ladies. The hat she is wearing is from Rowena Geeseman's world-famous Mademoiselle Hat Shop at Yates City. Carol Smith coming onto the set now is a private secretary for the manager of the Long Lines Department of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Violet Lewis is now a professional Coon hunter and her helper is Larry Page who has just won the championship bap gun shooter in Pottstown. Coming out next is Bill Robinson a lamp lighter for the Pottstown Electric Company.

In this next group is Jude Davis who has just won the speed test for putting a motorcycle together blindfolded. Here comes Larry Proctor now an investigator at the Aetna Insurance Company where he tracks down the hardened criminals who put gum under chairs. This is Bill Andrews the Chief Chef at the Chanute Parachute Diner where he specializes in the feeding of finicky fighters such as his old pal Malcolm Bolinger the Golden Gloves Champ.

Across the water we have our old classmate John Wilson president of a large chain of pool halls in South America. Then there is Jim Strappe a manufacturer of ladies Cosmetics in Gay Paree and Betty Largent who runs a sugar cane plantation in Cuba. Judy Van Dusen is the chief cook and bottle washer at Schmutz's Restaurant in Kewanee.

The racket you are hearing comes from Marilyn Cochran president of the Elvis Presley Fan Club, and Beverly Tanner a very good friend of Elvis Presley's-----hound dogs. The quiet conservative looking lady right behind them is Joyce Nelson a lady minister at the Oak Hill Church.

Here we see Sharon Ekens who runs a famous store for red heads where Evert Cape, a model for Yul Brynner haircuts, sometimes puts on a red wig to help model her clothes. This is Karen Kleen a House Mother at Knox College for the Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

Well, if it isn't Judy Parcell and her husband Dale Patton now a big farmer in the Hanna City Bottoms where he and his charming wife, from the city of Elmwood, arise at 5.30 every morning to milk the eggs and gather the cows. Anyway, that is what Judy says.

Our other classmates are Maurice Stambough, a salesman for Hoover sweepers, Bob Groper, a Boutonnere maker at Monroe's Flower Shop in Elmwood, John Davis a cake decorator at the Bake-Wrong Bakery, Joyce Webber, an instructor of callisthenics at West Point, and Ronnie Brooks, a Professor at Southport University. He must be reading the famous book "How to Get Along With Your Girl Friend" written by Claude Spellman, or it could be the one entitled "How to Get Along With Your Boy Friend" written by Mary Etta Pettow, his biggest rival.

Bringing up the tail as usual is Virginia Ekens who has just sold her ten millionth copy of the book entitled "Psychology in our Society Today." With the proceeds from her book she now drives a lavender Olds.

Now as you see us ten years later, Mrs. Hart, we are scattered in far away places engaged in various occupations. You are still teaching in Elmwood, and your beloved Sirge is still limping around.

And so ends the prophecy of the class of 1957 with memories of the past and with hopes of the future.

Eileen Wagner was chosen reporter.

Fifty-three returned in Sept. 1955 as sophomores. Duane Runyon was elected President with Jack Jordan, Vice-President; Jack Williams, Secretary; and Frank Miles, Reporter. Our advisers were Mrs. McEachern, Mrs. Farnsworth, and Mr. Gray. In the Homecoming Parade we placed second in our class, and our class was the most decorated class. We sponsored an all-school party and we also sponsored a dance with the seniors the night after the homecoming. On May 1, the class voted to go to the beach. Mr. Gray organized the trip, and Bob Cox drove the bus.

In the fall of 1956 thirty-eight freshmen entered E.C.H.S. The officers chosen by the class were Nancy Glenn, President; Jack Jorden, Vice-President; Barb Harris, Secretary; and Duane Runyon, Treasurer. Mary Anne Buchanan was chosen by the class to be class reporter. Our advisers were Mrs. McEachern and Mr. Gray. Mr. Gray left at the end of the first semester, and Mr. Bradburn took his place. In October we received first prize. This year we received second prize in our class in the homecoming parade. In November we presented a class play "Tiger on His Tree" under the direction of Mrs. McEachern. It was a big success. On May 10 we held our prom, "Madagascar in Motion." We are looking forward to next year when we return as seniors.

Class History

On August 29 of 1955, 69 freshmen, the largest class ever to enter E.C.H.S., attended their first day of school. At our first class meeting of the year, we elected Mary Miles, President, Randy Snider, Vice-President, Bob Whitney, Secretary-Treasurer and Mary Lou Endres, Reporter. Class advisors were Miss Jean Risen and Mr. Roland Cady.

On August 28, 66 of the 69 returned as sophomores. At our initial meeting on September 16, we elected officers. They were: Mary Miles, President, David Inskeep, Vice President, Bob Whitney, Secretary, Louise Bourgojn, Treasurer, and Carolyn Sparks, Reporter. Since we were allowed one money making project and one party a semester, we chose to have a scrap drive from which we made $64.35. For our party we went roller skating at Grand Roller Rink in Galesburg. We also entered a float in the Homecoming Parade with the theme "Defect to Galva." We received honorable mention for it.

The second semester a new student was added to our roll. For our money-making project this semester we sponsored a "Bop Hop." This was very successful, and everyone enjoyed a good time. We are all looking forward to next year when we will be juniors. Our sponsors this year were Mrs. Clara McCraith and Mr. Gene Hamman.

Freshmen

On August 29, 1956, sixty-four freshmen entered the doors of E.C.H.S. We all were scared and excited about being in high school.

We spent the first week getting acquainted with our new teachers and classes. We learned new rules and regulations.

At our first class meeting we elected the following officers: Jack Burns, President, Jean Hitchcock, Vice-President; Tom Reinhart, Secretary, Analea Davis, Treasurer Mary Morton, Reporter. Our supervisors were Mr. Cady and Mrs. Sims.

Soon after school started, we had Freshman Initiation. The whole school was invited.

January 19, 1957, we held a bake sale to earn money toward a party which we had later in the month.

The Elmwood football team enjoyed a better season this year than in the previous seasons. Although our record shows only two wins, it was successful as far as team and school spirit. The record for the season was two wins, one tie, and five losses, and is improving every year. The team itself placed seventh in the conference and two members were selected as members of the A-1-Conference team. They were Malcolm Bollinger as tackle and Jerry Blankenship as guard. The Trojans were said to have the best line in the conference. Malcolm Bollinger was also selected by his team-mates as being the most valuable player. Richard Coon and Vernon Broadfield, this year's co-captains, will be replaced by Jack Jordan and David Inskeep, who were elected by the team to lead next year's Trojans. The returning lettermen besides Jack Jordan and David Inskeep are: Bob Whitney, Lester Endres, Randy Snider, Vincent Hawk, and Gary Cox. Jim Fruit was a letter winner who moved from Elmwood. The senior letter winners were: Gerald Blankenship, Malcolm Bollinger, Vernon Broadfield, Richard Coon, Doug Coulter, and Larry McCoy. The season record was as follows:

Elmwood	14	Valley	6
Elmwood	0	Bradford	12
Elmwood	10	Toulon	10
Elmwood	0	Wyoming	26
Elmwood	0	Wethersfield	47
Elmwood	0	Galva	13
Elmwood	20	Walnut	0
Elmwood	6	Princeville	6

Varsity Basketball

The 1956-'57 Trojan Basketball team was hurt by the loss of eight seniors of last year. The team had only two returning lettermen, Richard Coon and Sonny Patterson. Bolstered by juniors for the rest of the starting five, the team ended with a 10 win and 13 loss record. The Trojans just couldn't come through at the last, except for one main instance, and that was the Canton Regional. As usual, Elmwood got seeded with a big team, Canton. The Little Giants were confident for a win because of their own floor and their supposed superiority. But the tables turned and the Trojans overcame a 12 point third quarter deficit for a 1 point victory, 53 to 52. Coach Cady considered this the high point and climax for the season. Quote Canton Daily Ledger, "It was the first time in the history of basketball play that a Canton team had been defeated in its opening tournament game. The locals have been beaten in district, regional and sectional play, but never before had the Purple and old Gold been turned back at the start." The Trojans then were beaten in the final quarter of the second game of the regional by Lewistown.

Sonny Patterson was named as Blackhawk All-Conference Center. This is the third straight year for Elmwood to place a man in this position. Tom Jones also received honorable mention. Dick Whitney was awarded the Alumni free throw award. Senior letter winners were: Sonny Patterson, Richard Coon, Douglas Coulter, Ronald Brooks. Junior letter winners were: Jack Jordan, Tom Jones and Dick Whitney.

Coach: Mr. Stamp.

Junior Varsity Basketball

The Junior Varsity Basketball team started the season off with seven straight wins. The team was only able to win 6 out of the next 13 games but ended with a very respectable 13 won and 7 loss record. They participated in the Princeville Fresh-Soph. Conference Tourney, but were beaten in the first game by Walnut. They placed third in Conference play under the direction of Coach Stamp.

Track is a minor sport at Elmwood, but is slowly rising in popularity. Many more boys are now participating in local meets and are making very good showings. The track team had entries in the Galva Relays at Galva, in the Blackhawk Conference Meet at Ponceville, the District Meet at Peoria, and the Gateway Classics at Clinton, Iowa.

At Galva, Malcolm Bollinger received first in the discus throw and third in the shot put, while Tom Jones won second in the pole vault. Tom Jones won another second in pole vaulting at Clinton, with Malcolm Bollinger winning a third in the discus and Richard Coon a third in the high jump. The Blackhawk Meet ended with Jack Jordan winning a second in the 880 run, Malcolm Bollinger getting a first in the discus and a second in shot put, and Richard Coon and Edward Cosby tied for second in the high jump. Richard Coon was the only team member to place in the District Meet; he tied for second in the high jump event which qualified him for the State Meet. The team was under the direction of Coach Gerald Stamp.

Baseball

The baseball season was all but ruined by bad weather. Rain caused the rescheduling of most of the games and hampered most of the practices. The season was opened with wins over Brimfield and the Farmington Frosh. After that the team ran into a losing streak, with losses to Knoxville, Wyoming, Yates City and to Farmington in District play. Rain also caused the complete cancellation of two Blackhawk games, which were never played, and games with local teams. The final season record ended with a 2 win and 5 loss tally. The baseball team was under the coaching of coach Rolland Cady, with Gary Cox as manager.

The Elmwood chapter of the Future Homemakers of America has a total membership of 81 girls this year. Our program for the year began with a picnic at Jubilee Park in August, and was followed in September by F.H.A. Courtesy Week. In October we held Daddy Date Nite, and a meeting with the Farmington F.H.A. Our Sadie Hawkins Dance was in November, and the following month, December, we had a Christmas party with the F.W.E. and the F.F.A. Mrs. Joe Kendall showed slides on her trip to Scandinavia at the Piggy Bank Party in January, and in February we held our annual Sweetheart Swing. In March the style show, Vanity Fair, was a huge success. F.H.A. Week and the Senior F.H.A. girls' trip to St. Louis were in April, and was followed, in May, by the Civil Defense Program. We hope our membership continues to be as large as it has been this year.

The Pep Club has been very active this year. They presented a float and stunt in the homecoming festivities. With the proceeds from our candy sales, we bought nine pennants which are now on display in the gymnasium.

On February 13, 1957, we had our Parents Night. The fathers represented their sons by wearing his number. The mothers received a carnation of their choice. We hope to have a larger membership and more activities next year.

They were Bob Whitney and Jackie Miles. Then everyone voted for the best dressed Romans. Bob Whitney was best dressed boy and Bessie Brown and Jackie Miles were best dressed girls. They were awarded prizes.

A new organization was formed in the high school this year, which is the Letterman's Club. It is composed only of boys who have earned letters in any one or more than one of the following activities; football, basketball, track, baseball, and band. This organization places the value of a letter higher because it entitles a student to enter the club when he earns a letter.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Cady and Mr. Stamp, we held all of our meetings. The following officers were elected at the last meeting: President, Richard Coon, Vice-President, Douglas Coulter; Secretary-Treasurer, Sonny Patterson.

The Letterman's Club and G.A.A. co-sponsored a Donkey Basketball Game during the year. The Letterman's Club also sold Elmwood Troan sweat-shirts. We held a picnic at Canton with our proceeds.

Homecoming

Homecoming activities began on October eighteenth with a chile supper sponsored by the seniors and held in the cafeteria. Following the supper a stunt show was held in the gym by the various classes and organizations. Also, the queen and her attendants were presented. It was MC'd by Ronald Coon. The seniors thought the chile supper was a huge success.

For the first time our queen and her attendants reigned over the festivities beginning with the supper.

Friday found students hurrying around putting the finishing touches on their floats. The parade began at the schoolhouse around 2:30 and made its way to Main Street. Many people were there to enjoy the band, the floats, and watch the car carrying Queen Judy Purcell, and her attendants Janet Harlan, Karen Keen, Carol Smith, and Judie Davis. We then came back to the school and were led in a pep rally by our cheerleaders.

That night we had our game with Garva and much to our sorrow lost 13-5. Just before the game started the four winning floats were driven around the field.

At 9:30 the dance got under way in the gym with music furnished by Mr. Cady's orchestra. At 11:00 the winners of the floats were announced with the seniors placing first for the last three years. The Juniors placed second and the Latin Club third. Honorable mention went to the sophomores. Also at that time Mr. Stamp crowned Queen Judy Purcell and King Malcolm Belanger. The King's attendants were, Vernon Broadfield, Larry McCoy, Richard Coon, and Jerry Eccles. So, at 12:00 the dance ended, and thanks to everyone, it was a huge success.

Midnight in Madrid

Friday, May 10, 1957, found the juniors in a mild state of uproar. The prom day had finally arrived.

At 6:30 the seniors were guests at a banquet prepared by the junior mothers. A program followed the banquet. The welcome was given by the junior class president Nancy Glenn, the response by the senior class president Ronald Coon; a vocal solo by Gloria Swanson; a reading by Letitia Steer, a short talk followed by The Lord's Prayer by Mr. Cady; and the presentation of gifts to the seniors.

Nine o'clock arrived and we began dancing to the music of the Modernaires in a gym beautifully decorated with fans, a fountain, and other items in keeping with the theme.

Ten o'clock came at last and the royal procession was led by Nancy Glenn and Jack Jordan, the junior class president and vice-president; they were followed by Tom Jones and Kay Windish, the junior attendants; behind them came Vernon Broadfield and Catherine McIntyre, the senior attendants. Next came the royal pair, King Richard Coon and Queen Janet Harlan. Last of all came punch boy Glenn McBeth and punch girl Nancy Miles.

At 12:00 the dance ended and we all proceeded to the Chuck Wagon after which we returned to Elmwood and attended the movie there.

Four o'clock found a group of sleepy looking students eating breakfast at the high school.

This was the first all night prom and after a very enjoyable evening we all agreed that it was a huge success.
